Message from CEO, Kelly Koh

The New Year started off splendidly for NAA!

We are pleased to receive the renewal of another 4-year Edutrust Certification (valid 7/1/2024 to 6/1/2028) conferred by The Committee for Private Education after a rigorous audit check in October last year.

We are thankful to our partner universities and students for helping us achieve this valuable certification.

We remain committed to delivering high-quality education and training to help individuals advance their knowledge and skills to maximise their potential.

A flashback into 2023 shows that our performance was not too bad last year amidst an unstable economy and challenging geopolitical tensions.

3 ROADSHOWS

July: Tan Tock Seng Hospital
August: Ngee Ann Polytechnic
November: Nanyang Polytechnic

49 INFORMATION SESSIONS

Information Sessions were organised for potential nursing students to find out more about the degree programmes offered by King's College London.

FIRST NETWORKING RECEPTION

We had our first networking reception on 23 November last year at Hotel Jen Orchard Gateway.

2024

The finale culminated in a grand celebration for over 100 King's nursing graduands in November 2023, when they received their well-earned degrees at the Ngee Ann Kongsi Auditorium, located within the Academia campus at the Singapore General Hospital.

As we set sail into the new year, we'll continue to do our best to support your education journey with NAA, fulfilling hopes and dreams that will make a difference.

Bon Voyage to an extraordinary 2024!

Warm Wishes,
Kelly

OBJECTIVE

This workshop educates individuals on how to better manage their money effectively.

ABOUT THE TRAINER

Paul has been a trainer with the Institute for Financial Literacy (IFL) since 2019. He has been leading workshops and giving talks on programmes run by IFL in areas such as money management, retirement planning, CPF insurance schemes and personal investing.

Graduated with an MBA (University of Queensland), Paul has worked with SMEs (about 500 employees), GLCs (more than 10,000 employees), local start-ups (less than 100 employees), and led regional business development work representing a Swiss based company, Comfone AG (JV company of Swissom and Vodafone) covering Asia Pacific in business development, training, sales and marketing.

COURSE OUTLINE

- Know Your Money Habits
- Differentiate Between Needs & Wants
- Set SMART Goals
- Track Your Expenses
- Budgeting Techniques
- Converting Spending into Savings – Tips to a Fatter Wallet
- Use of MoneySense Savings Calculator to meet your financial goals.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Those who want to learn how to set financial goals, take control of their spending, reduce expenses, and convert them into long term savings.

ABOUT IFL

The Institute for Financial Literacy (IFL) is a collaboration between MoneySense and Singapore Polytechnic International Pte Ltd. IFL's approach is to provide easy to understand and practical information for Singaporeans to better manage their own financial planning needs, by boosting confidence through knowledge, which in turn leads to action to achieve better financial well-being and preparedness for the future.
