Latest Campus News & Updates

Message from CEO, Kelly Koh

As we reflect on 2024, it is clear that Ngee Ann Academy (NAA) has made remarkable strides in enhancing your learning journey. Whether through refining our initiatives or deepening our partnerships with our university partners, students and alumni, every step was taken with your growth and success in mind.

This past year, we introduced workshops that sharpened your skills, launched networking opportunities that expanded your horizons, and enriched the campus experience to foster a vibrant and inclusive learning environment. All of these efforts were driven by one vision: to empower you to achieve your personal and professional aspirations.

LATEST NEWS & UPDATES

NAA'S OUTREACH AT NANYANG POLYTECHNIC

Staying connected with our nursing students is not just a priority—it's our promise to be with you on your journey. We reached out to more than 300 nursing students from Year One to Three on 11 December 2024 at the SHSS (School of Health & Social Sciences) Career and Education Fair, held at Nanyang Polytechnic. We were delighted to engage these students on an array of topics, particularly on why they should continue to up-skill their nursing knowledge and expertise upon their graduation from the Polytechnic.

MBA ALUMNI RECEPTION AND AUAAS BARNITE 2024

On 15 November, the Singapore MBA Alumni Reception transformed the InterContinental Hotel into a vibrant hub, where alumni from the University of Adelaide reconnected over an evening of inspiring conversations and meaningful connections.

The energy carried through to December as the Adelaide University Alumni Association Singapore (AUAAS) hosted its festive Barnite, closing the year with flair and enthusiasm.

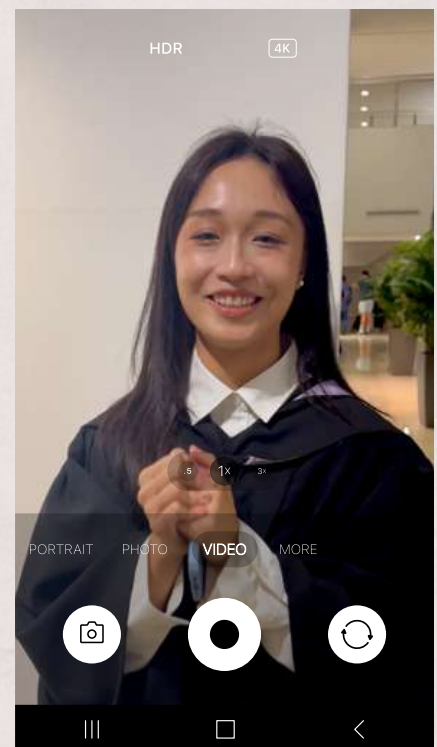

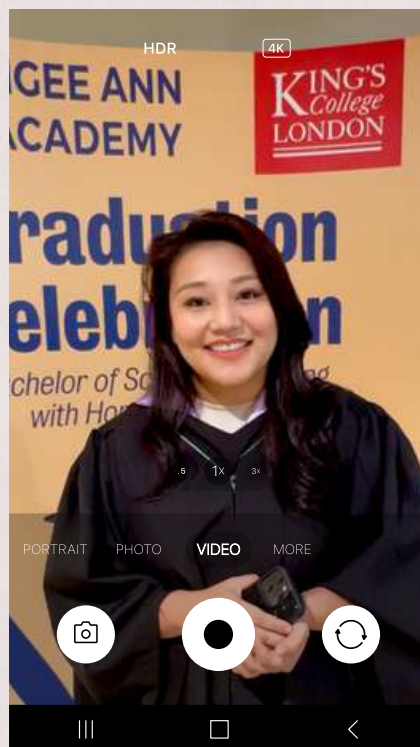

Let's keep the momentum going and kickstart 2025 with roaring success and bountiful opportunities!

AN APPRECIATION FOR KING'S LECTURERS

At last December's Graduation Celebration, we asked several of King's nursing graduands a heartfelt question: Who made a difference in your education journey, and who would you like to thank? Their answers were both touching and inspiring.

Discover their stories of gratitude and appreciation.
